Menlo 2017 Auction Conditions & Limitations

Please note that all sales are final. Menlo School assumes no liability and makes no warranties or representations of any kind with respect to any auction item, donation drawing item or other item available for purchase through the Menlo Libre: A Knight in Havana Online Auction and Live Auction for Financial Aid.

Purchaser is responsible for reviewing the auction item package description, auction conditions and limitations prior to bidding. Assume the following, unless otherwise stated, that all offers of services, homes, hotels, parties and gift certificates or other items:

- expire March 25, 2018
- may have restrictions and limitations, including blackout dates and expiration dates
- will be scheduled by mutual donor/buyer consent
- may not be sold or otherwise used by persons other than the purchaser without the donor's consent
- will be arranged after purchaser contacts donor;
- does not include transportation, which is the responsibility of the purchaser, except where explicitly stated otherwise in the offering.

Some items are open to all bidders, while others are restricted to members of the Menlo community.

Purchasers are expected to contact the donor to make necessary arrangements regarding the item purchased.

The donor has provided all value information of items. Menlo School makes no warranties about any items included in this catalog or online. Purchasers should consult their personal tax advisors for guidance on the tax deductibility of donations and/or purchases.

Live

These auction items will be available for bidding during the live auction at Menlo Libre: A Knight In Havana on March 25, 2017. Choose from among truly priceless experiences, including vacations, exclusive dinners and unique events. Pick your favorite and plan to invite your friends, or form a bidding team in advance to gain a competitive edge!

Only in Havana

Only in Havana is an exciting new feature of this year's auction dinner and dance event. A small collection of exclusive vacations, adventures and experiences, Only in Havana items are available for bidding and buying at Menlo Libre: A Knight in Havana, on March 25. Bidding opens when the first cocktails are served in Club Havana, so come early or designate your proxy bidder . . . these items are sizzling hot!

Tickets to Count-Me-In Events

These items are sold for a fixed price. No-bid items include Count-Me-In parties and some specific events. Purchasing continues until all spots are filled. Entering your bid for a party constitutes a commitment to pay. In the event you are unable to attend, your full payment will be considered a donation to Menlo School and is very much appreciated.

Auction Items

Menlo School assumes no liability and makes no warranties or representations of any kind with respect to any item sold through the Menlo Online and Live Auction or its related activities. Generous parents, faculty and community members have donated items to our auction. We have attempted to describe these items correctly and to work around known school calendar dates.. We apologize for any errors, changes or omissions. All items are sold "as is." All items offered in this catalog are restricted to registered members of the Menlo Community, unless otherwise stated. Menlo School is not responsible for the correctness or condition of any activity, service or product purchased through this auction, including but not limited to failure of delivery, failure of performance, and/or claims for personal injury or property damage.

Item Values

All item values are as estimated by the donor, where available, and are not warranted by Menlo School for purposes of valuation or tax consequences. Auction purchases are tax-deductible to the extent that the amount paid exceeds the fair market value at retail on the item(s) or service(s) received. Please consult your tax advisor for further information.

Payment and Receipt

All sales are final and no exchanges or refunds are possible. Cash, check and credit card payments will be accepted. We prefer that winning bidders for Online and Live auction items, including Fund-a-Future donations, be paid by check to the school to save the 4% credit card fees.

Questions?

If you have any questions, please contact Katherine Kelly at kkelly@menloschool.org.

2 Guys on the Green

Sit back, relax, and dream of perfectly manicured greens and your first hole-in-one as your group of 6 travels by private jet for a short, 45-minute flight to Lake Tahoe for your perfectly planned golfer's paradise. Your co-hosts Jack Weingart and John Marren will tend to every detail of your stay at the beautiful mountain home of the Weingart family. Whether amateur or enthusiast, enjoy two days of golf at the world-class courses at Martis Camp and Lahontan. Or mix it up and explore the Sierras in other ways including: mountain biking on the famed Flume Trail, one of America's top-10 rated rides in the west; bouldering; or kayaking in the blue waters of legendary Lake Tahoe. Return each evening to relax and enjoy hand-crafted cocktails or local micro-brews as you revel in the alpenglow. Sweeping fairways, stunning vistas, and activities galore - this is High Sierra living at its finest.

This package for 6 guys includes:

*2 days/2 nights in a luxurious private home

*two rounds of golf for 6 (one at Lahontan, one at Martis Camp)

*round trip air transportation on a Phenom 300 Jet with two pilots

*all food & drink, including dinners at Martis Camp Lodge and Cottonwood Restaurant Restrictions: Dates to be mutually agreed upon. Value: Hole in One!

3 Mix it Up with Jack Bowen: Philosophy, Cocktails & Dinner for 12 - 5/20/17

Due to its immense success, "Philosophy, Cocktails & Dinner" now enters its 6th annual edition. As featured in the New York Times and USA Today and heard on NPR, join national bestselling author and mixologist Jack Bowen for his latest concoctions and cocktail hour before a dinner for 12 hosted in beautiful Woodside. Throw Emily Post's convention to the wind while you playfully engage in discussions about life's biggest ideas--Jack will spark conversation with quips from his third book, "If You Can Read This: The Philosophy of Bumper Stickers", which is included for all guests in the package. Explore topics such as "What If The Hokey Pokey IS What It's All About?" and "If Ignorance is Bliss then Why Aren't More People Happy?" all while adhering to Aristotle's charge, "It is best to rise from life as from a banquet, neither thirsty nor drunken." Jack's fourth book comes out this summer so, while "Philosophy, Cocktails & Dinner" is sure to continue to be a crowd favorite, this may be the last year to experience it all in just this way, on Saturday, May 20th. And Jack will be coming off his recent TEDxStanford performance in April so will be sure to challenge and enlighten all who attend. Value: Priceless

8 Do You Know The Way to Santa Fe?

Experience Santa Fe your way! Eight lucky guests (girlfriends, guy-friends, couples or families) will fly on a private plane to the Hamilton family's heavenly hacienda for a 4 day/3 night stay surrounded by 50 scenic acres and views of the majestic Sangre de Cristo mountain range. From the moment the plane touches down, your fabulous hosts will have planned every last detail! The views are endless and so are your opportunities for pleasure during your stay. Would you like to explore the outdoors by hiking, mountain biking, skiing or horseback riding in the many national parks and preserves? What about discovering the art and history of Santa Fe through an historical walking tour, a museum visit, or gallery hopping? Or perhaps your idea of unwinding is by immersing yourself in the local culture. Visit the stunning archaeological sites left by ancient Native Americans, learn to prepare Southwestern fare from the internationally acclaimed Santa Fe School of Cooking, or visit the local shops for the colorful folk art, southwestern jewelry, and pottery.

Whether you bring your friends or family, leave all the details to your personal concierges, Carol and Cynthia, who will customize your daily activities based on your preferences. Back at the hacienda, a professional chef will cater to your breakfast wishes and prepare a memorable dinner with a view one evening, including stargazing with an astronomer. Enjoy a second dinner out at Geronimo, an award winning restaurant on chic Canyon Road. And don't miss the third dinner out on the town - an opportunity to tap into your inner cowgirl - at Santa Fe's infamous Cowgirl BBQ. Don't forget your boots and spurs; with luck you will hit karaoke night!

2005 Vegas, Baby! For 12 High Rollers

Planning a 50th (or 40th!) birthday? Dreaming of your bachelor party reunion? Craving a dose of the non-stop hyper-oxygenated all-night party that IS Las Vegas? Look no further, this is the package for you! Your group of 12 (couples, girlfriends, guy-friends, complete strangers!) will enjoy a 2-night luxury stay in 6 deluxe resort rooms at your choice of any MGM Resorts International Las Vegas property. Choose from the ARIA, Vdara, Bellagio, Delano or the MGM Grand itself, among many others, to stow your bags (not that it matters, since you won't be sleeping). Enjoy a dinner (up to $1250 value) at any MGM property restaurant, including Top Chef TV personality and James Beard Award-winning Chef Tom Colicchio's Craftsteak, Michael Mina's Pub 1842, Joël Robuchon's award-winning French bistro, or Emeril Lagasse's New Orleans Fish House. And since the night is always young in Vegas, make time for any MGM Resorts International show, featuring headliners like Ricky Martin and Boyz II Men, an array of Cirque du Soleil shows including the world famous "O," the Michael Jackson tribute "One," the Beatles "Love," or if you need a good laugh, take in the comedic genius of Wayne Brady, Bill Maher, Jim Jefferies or Jay Leno. Oh, and we almost forgot, you'll ride in style with two limousines to and from the airport, because that's how you roll. Vegas, Baby. You deserve it. Value: $5000

2006 McLaren 570 GT for a Fast and Fun Weekend

Talk about curb appeal. Park this baby in front of your house and you'll be the talk of the town! Use of a beautiful, new McLaren 570GT is yours for 2 days / 200 miles . . . whether you take a drive down the coast, open it up after hours on the highway, drop your daughter off at her soccer game, or hit the highway headed for wine country, you'll be riding in style. Designed and built for the performance driver who wants a car they can use every day, the GT provides outstanding performance with additional comfort. A side opening rear hatch gives access to an extended luggage space; the panoramic glass roof allows more daylight into the sumptuous interior. The new 570GT is the perfect balance of road dynamics and long distance touring capabilities. And should you choose the wine country route, enjoy a dinner for two and a bottle of local wine at Willi's Seafood & Raw Bar in Healdsburg!

Restrictions:

Driver must be 25 years old or older with a current, valid CA Drivers License and insurance policy. Driver may not exceed 200 miles driven over the two day period. McLaren San Francisco will arrange a time that is convenient for both parties to start the borrowed vehicle process. Value: $4200

305 Bread Baking with Mitch -11/3/2017

"Without bread all is misery." – William Cobbett, British journalist Home-made bread fresh from the oven is an awesome thing. It is also one of the simplest, with only four necessary ingredients: flour, water, salt and yeast. If you can harness the magical power of these ingredients to create textures and flavors, it is possible to bake incredible sourdough levain bread in your own kitchen. Making great bread at home is a process, not recipe. This class will teach you all the fundamentals of the process of making an artisanal sourdough loaf. Mitch will try to show the whole cycle of bread: growing a sourdough culture, mixing and folding dough, shaping a loaf, and baking. The goal is to learn what dough is supposed to look, smell, and feel like as it develops, so you can do this confidently at home. Mitch tries to bake bread every week. We will bake and eat fresh bread during the class, along with cheeses, honey and wine. First time bread bakers welcome.

409 Literary Seminar Series Fall 2017 - 9/5/17, 10/2/17, 11/6/17, 12/5/17

Midway between the warmest of book clubs and the most elucidating lecture, Kimberly's four fall seminars will entertain, inspire and help you read better. Best-selling author, Ph.D. and former adjunct professor at Berkeley, Kimberly leads her mighty but cozy band of readers to delve more deeply into novels—all in relaxed and entertaining 90-minute sessions at nearby Kepler's from 1:00-2:30 pm on four fall afternoons, just before Menlo pick-up! The fall's four titles are: Lorrie Moore's Who will Run The Frog Hospital, Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God, Vonnegut's Slaughterhouse-Five and Woolf's Mrs. Dalloway. Copies are included in the price of the seminar, each book handpicked for richness and originality, its dark humor or astonishing warmth. (Plus each is SLIM, given the busy nature of fall on the Peninsula.) Books are included and should be picked up at Kepler's (and read) prior to the meeting date.

Dates may be subject to slight alteration but meetings will likely be: Tuesday, September 5;

Monday, October 2; Monday, November 6; and Tuesday, December 5.

410 2nd Annual Intro to Chess and Quad Format Chess Tournament for Students, Faculty & Parents - 9/24/17

Enjoy lunch and learn how to play "the game of kings," how to "castle on the King's side" and play the "Ruy Lopez opening." Chess is called the Game of Kings. Chess can raise your IQ; help prevent Alzheimer's; exercise both sides of the brain; increase your creativity; improve your memory. Plus: There will be medals and fun prizes and a fun "simul" (simultaneous match against multiple opponents) played by a grandmaster chess player. Quad Format Chess Tournament: All entrants are ranked from lowest to highest ability level. The top four players are placed into their own section (a "quad"), then the next four highest in another section, and so on down the list. The players in each quad play a round robin format, playing one game against each of the other three players in their section. Come connect with fellow chess players and enjoy an engaging and fun afternoon!

416 Menlo Moms Pursuing Their Passions - 2/2/2018

Join us for a luncheon and speakers from our Menlo community presenting on the topic of mothers pursuing their passions, reshaping/shifting their career paths, as well as balancing work and family responsibilities for moms who work both in and outside the home, featuring:

Sharon Meers: Sharon Meers is a Menlo mom of two, business woman and author. She was Managing Director at Goldman Sachs where she worked for 17 years and has spent the last 6 years working for tech companies, most recently as an executive at eBay and an advisor to start ups. Sharon is the co-author of Getting to 50/50, a book about women and leadership.

Julie Clugage: Julie Clugage, Menlo mom of three, is Co-Founder and Executive Director of Team4Tech Foundation, a non-profit that works to advance 21st Century education in developing countries through technology volunteers and solutions. Prior to launching Team4Tech, Julie worked for 10 years at Intel, as Chief of Staff in the Corporate Affairs and Education Market Platforms groups. She also has a background in international development, at the World Bank and the Inter-American Development Bank.

Jeanne Rosner, MD: Jeanne Rosner, a Menlo mom of two high schoolers, is a board certified anesthesiologist who practiced pediatric anesthesia at Stanford Medical Center for nearly 20 years. Six years ago she began teaching nutrition classes in her son's 5th grade science class which was an "aha" moment for her. She realized that learning and teaching about nutrition, health, and wellness in her community was her destiny. Since retiring from anesthesia, Jeanne has been a nutrition educator at Woodside Elementary School, Menlo School, the Boys and Girls Club of the Peninsula and Peninsula Bridge.

Nina Arnberg: Menlo faculty member Dr. Nina Arnberg is pursuing her passion of supporting students in their understanding of, and love for, science. As MBEST director, she focuses on building confidence in our girls by developing opportunities to increase the meaningful representation of women in STEM. Nina earned her PhD in Ecology &

Evolutionary Biology from UC Santa Cruz with an emphasis in Science & Engineering Education. Before transitioning into secondary education at Menlo, she joined the Science Internship Program team at UC Santa Cruz to provide more cutting-edge STEM research opportunities to high-school students. After working a full day with her “academic children” at Menlo, she transitions into being a mom to her two, young children.Plus: Special segment on the topic of Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction for parents!

705 Drinks and Dinner, Darling? The Way to Really Enjoy Cocktails and Dinner

6 couples are invited for cocktails and dinner at the Bressie home in Hillsborough, where your hosts will show you how an evening was meant to be enjoyed. This is a dinner party your parents would approve of but with all the right contemporary upgrades, when the cocktail hour truly was an hour or more, martinis and manhattans were served in crystal, and a classic dinner of steak, baked potato and a decadent dessert was the menu du jour. Experience this new twist on an old classic.

Restrictions: 1/27/18 or mutually agreeable date. Value: $1500

706 Women and Wine - 9/15/17

Join us for a relaxed evening of wine education for 12-15 women, with appetizers, cheese and wine. Although Sharon Harris was raised in California and lives in the Napa Valley, her love of wine is a shared experience of two viticulture worlds; Napa and Bordeaux. Combining American sensibility and love of the land with a Bordeaux palate and winemaking education rooted in old world traditions. The blending of these two worlds has defined a RARECAT wine style based on elegance and balance. Sharon's greatest passion has been empowering women through wine and supporting women in the wine industry. Several years ago she formed an exclusive trade group called Wine Entre Femmes, comprised of some of the most remarkable women in wine in Napa and Bordeaux, and co-founded A Woman's Palate, a company that celebrates wines by women for women. Sharon graduated with honors from the Universite de Bordeaux's famed D.U.A.D. program, a technical oenology diploma taught in French.

814 "Star Wars: The Last Jedi" Private Screening - January 2018

"A long time ago in a galaxy far, far away....", we have been swept into space by George Lucas' epic saga of Luke Skywalker (Mark Hamill), Leia (Carrie Fisher), Han Solo (Harrison Ford) and more recently, Rey (Daisy Ridley) in the most recent of the adventure space epic series, with its classic music themes composed by John Williams. "Star Wars: The Last Jedi" (also known as "Star Wars: Episode VIII – The Last Jedi") is the second installment in the Star Wars sequel trilogy following "Star Wars: The Force Awakens" (2015). The film, produced by Lucasfilm and Walt Disney Studios, is Carry Fisher's final film role before her death in December 2016. The story resumes immediately after the events of "The Force Awakens". Now we are calling all Star Wars fans! Bring the whole family and join the Menlo community at a private screening of this year's latest release at Redwood City Cinemark theater after we return from winter break in January 2018. 906 It's a Brave New World! Discussion & Dinner - Ryan Dean, Charles Hanson & Matthew Nelson - 10/6/17

Has the outcome in last year's national election cycle piqued your interest in how governing policies might change going forward? Any thoughts you would like to share with fellow Menlo parents and Menlo's very own political analysis superstars: Upper School history department chair and former Washington legislative correspondent, Ryan Dean; AP Economics teacher and APUSH extraordinaire, Dr. Charles Hanson; and Upper School history and global issues for global citizens teacher, Matthew Nelson? If so, this dinner is for you! Join hosts Wendy and Brett Fisher, Julie Herlihy and Jeff Kinder, Ryan Dean, Dr. Charles Hanson and Matthew Nelson for a special evening designed for 16 guests at the Fisher home in Menlo Park. We'll start the evening sharing the results of our policy prediction contest, with ballots to be submitted this spring. Conversation will continue over a three course dinner prepared by celebrated Bay Area chef and Cutthroat Kitchen winner, Kellan Hori. Kellan will use his culinary magic to create D.C. inspired dishes with local California ingredients. We'll mix table seatings throughout and add a few extra surprises to make it a lively evening of political discussion.

907 Finding Facts: Dodging Fake News, Alternative Facts and Major Biases with Tripp Robbins - 2/7/18

Who can you trust and how can you sift through the avalanche of information that screams for your attention? Sure, the obvious propaganda is transparent enough, but beyond that, how should a savvy adult measure bias? Are "legacy" media outlets like buggy whips? Let's discuss. Menlo journalism advisor Tripp Robbins will lead a discussion around these topics to help you find more insight into today's media mayhem. Enjoy discussion and dessert!

908 Poetry Discussion with Maren Adler - 2/12/18

Calling all poetry enthusiasts! Upper School English teacher, Maren Adler, will take you on an exploration of Romantic poets and their legacy. From odes on Grecian urns to casting off the "albatross around your neck," these poets' words and ideas are still a vibrant part of our culture even after 200 years. The evening will cover what made the core group of these poets (Coleridge, Wordsworth, Shelley, Keats, and Byron) both revolutionary and timeless by reading and discussing poems excerpted from our AP English Literature and 10th Grade curricula. You'll refresh your understanding of how to look at a poem deeply and talk confidently about its key features, and learn a thing or two about how nature can be your "teacher."

911 What Makes Winnie the Pooh Smile: Dinner and Discussion with Peter Brown and Andy Kitt - 11/5/17

The Buddha says "May all beings have happy minds," and during this engaging and enlightening evening in tranquil Portola Valley, we'll explore the world of peace and happiness for ourselves and those around us while in conversation with Menlo faculty Andy Kitt and Peter Brown. Learning through Buddha's teachings, we'll discuss how working towards a positive mindset of optimism, mindfulness and gratitude creates positive emotion, a greater sense of belonging, and decreases stress. Peter and Andy will share skills and activities to embark on a mindfulness practice and to gain a deeper understanding of the current mindfulness movement and experiences for teens. The night will inspire your mind and your taste buds and put a smile on your face as we take a deep dive on happiness while enjoying a gourmet vegetarian meal fit for the Buddha.

Fun with Faculty: For Students

1001 Leadership Training, Football Clinic & BBQ for 8th Graders with Mark Newton - 4/22/17

Come join Menlo faculty member and Head Varsity Football Coach, Mark Newton, and members of Menlo's Varsity Football Team for an afternoon and evening filled with football, mentorship, great food, and fun. We will have a football skills clinic in which participants will learn some of Menlo's dynamic offensive and defensive schemes and play games. Afterwards, we will go to the Corley's home for more fun (BBQ, more games, and a pool party). We will also discuss leadership principles within Menlo's football program as well as a "high school thrive kit" designed by Coach Newton to help ensure incoming ninth graders a positive and strong transition to high school. Your eighth grader will have an incredibly fun day, meet and form relationships with several new "big brothers", and be ready to start the summer and fall with the confidence to excel in all areas of the high school experience. Parents of the boys are welcome to come to the Corley's a little early for pickup to get a chance to see old friends and to make new ones. All current (and new incoming from other schools to the US) 8th grade boys are welcome to attend, even those not planning to play football this fall. It's a great way for next years FANs to understand the team and plays they will be supporting.

1007 The Great Escape with Charles Hanson and David Spence

It's your student's worst nightmare: Locked in a sealed room for 80 minutes with two teachers and no visible means of escape. Put your upper school student and 8-10 friends to the challenge of matching wits with Charles Hanson and David Spence as together they try to unlock the mysteries of San Francisco's award-winning Houdini escape room at the Palace of Fine Arts. Designed to match Harry Houdini's first "escape room" built 100 years ago inside the Palace of Fine Arts, as a challenge to 8 brilliant innovators, this escape room is a mental thrill-ride. Will your students surpass the original escapees — Thomas Edison, Alexander Graham Bell, Henry Ford, Charlie Chaplin, John Philip Sousa, William "Buffalo Bill" Cody, Helen Keller, and Luther Burbank -- in their quest to complete the challenge? Assuming a successful escape, the group will enjoy a celebratory meal together after.

1413 The Village Doctor One-Year Pediatric Membership

Have you considered enrolling your child in a concierge medicine practice? In the Concierge Medicine model a doctor can take the time to build a meaningful relationship with you and your family by caring for 250 patients rather than 2,500. Your physician can then truly be your child's advocate, both in sickness and in health. The Village Doctor in Woodside is offering membership for an entire year for a child in our practice under the care of pediatrician Dr. Jacqueline Bors. The Village Doctor was founded in 2004 by Dr. Eric Weiss as the first family-oriented concierge practice in the country to care for both adult and pediatric patients. Dr. Bors grew up in Woodside and attended Woodside Elementary School and Menlo School. She graduated Magna Cum Laude in Biological Sciences from USC and went on to the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston. Dr. Bors then returned to UCLA for her pediatric residency, working at Mattel Children's Hospital, Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Olive View Medical Center and the Venice Family Clinics as together these institutions offer an incredible diversity of patients and pathology. She was honored to be chosen Chief Resident and spent an extra year assisting in the training of future pediatricians and gaining additional experience in both in-patient and out-patient pediatrics as well as medical education. Value: $6000

Wine

1901 2008 Dunn Vineyards Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon

98 points, Robert Parker's Wine Advocate: "The 2008 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain takes things to another level, as hard as it may seem to believe. Nature rewarded Dunn with the fruit to make an epic wine that could very well turn out to be a modern-day legend. The 2008 is a huge, towering wine packed with dark fruit, licorice, tar, asphalt and licorice. Layers of perfume are woven throughout this majestic effort." (98+ points, tasted 1/2011) notes by Antonio Galloni. Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. Wine will not be released to students. Value: $180

Sonia Bhanot & Vivek Mehra

1902 2007 Chateau Montelena Estate Cabernet Sauvignon

94+ Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate A great wine in the making, the 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate (just under 10,000 cases produced) possesses a fragrant bouquet of sweet black currants, crushed rocks, earth and background oak. Full-bodied and dense, with Montelena's typical power, tannin and reserved nature, this is a big, rich, formidably endowed red that requires 4-5 years of cellaring. That in itself is atypical of this exuberant, flamboyant vintage. Given this cuvee's past history, this 2007 should age for 30+ years. (RP) (12/22/2010). Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. Wine will not be released to students. Value: $140

1903 Three Bottle Vertical of Silver Oak Cabernet Sauvignon

This 3 bottle vertical is perfect for a wine tasting over dinner, enabling you to compare the 2009 Napa Valley Cabernet to the 2010 and 2011 Alexander Valley Cabernets. 2009 Silver Oak Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon - 88 points Wine Spectator Shows off a spice, dill and cedary oak quality, met by ripe currant, smoke, wild berry and cigar box notes. Ends with firm, ripe tannins that give the flavors grip. (JL) (10/2014) 2010 Silver Oak Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon – 89 points Wine Spectator Aromas of vanilla, mocha, dill and anise impart complex scents, while the flavors fold over to the palate, joining taut dark berry and cherry notes, supported by firm, tight tannins. Drink now through 2022. (JL) (10/2014) 2011 Silver Oak Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon – 85 points Wine Spectator Inviting aromas of plum, dried berry and cedary oak turn dry and savory. Very much in sync with wines of the vintage, making this a good, well made effort that's hollow at midpalate. Drink now through 2020. 55,000 cases made. (JL) (2015). Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or

1904 4-Year Vertical of Kosta Browne Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

The 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 vintages make up this unique vertical. Perfect for a tasting with friends over dinner.

2009 - 95 points Wine Spectator

2011 Wine of the Year Ripe and deeply flavored, concentrated and well-structured, this full-bodied red offers a complex mix of black cherry, wild berry and raspberry fruit that's pure and persistent, ending with a pebbly note and firm tannins. Drink now through 2018. (JL) (8/2011)

2010 - 92 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2010 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast is striking in its beauty. Freshly cut flowers, mint, dark cherries, cloves and violets seem to jump from the glass. A crystalline, pure Pinot, the 2010 is loaded with energy and brightness. Though medium in body, the 2010 is all about vibrancy and nuance. This is a terrific entry-level Pinot from Kosta-Browne. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2017. (AG) (4/2013)

2011 - 92 points Vinous

The 2011 Pinot Noir (Sonoma Coast) has a bit of a darker toned than the Russian River bottling, and also firmer in its tannin. Plum, black cherry, menthol, tobacco and licorice meld together gracefully as the 2011 opens up in the glass. The combination of fruit and structure is compelling. This is a fabulous appellation-level Pinot, due in part to the vineyard blend, which in 2011 includes 40% fruit from Gap's Crown, along with Terra del Promissio and Walala. (AG) (2/2014)

2012 - 93 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2012 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast is a beautiful wine that comes from four vineyards, Gap's Crown, Griffin's Lair, Terra de Promissio and Walala. It has a deep ruby/semi-opaque color that is followed by a youthful, rich and concentrated wine offering classic dark cherries, plum, licorice, ground herbs and baking-spice-driven aromas and flavors. Medium to full-bodied, layered and structured, it opens up beautifully with air, has seamlessly integrated fruit, tannin and alcohol, and stays classy and nicely focused on the finish. It can be enjoyed now with a decant, but will be better in another year, and have over a decade of longevity. This was another stacked lineup by the team of Dan Kosta and Michael Browne. All of these wines showed the more approachable style of the 2012 vintage, and had seamless, elegant characters. They're beautiful now, but I suspect they will evolve nicely given their overall balance. (JD) (10/2014)

1905 2003 Beaulieu Vineyard Georges de Latour Private Reserve Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

95 points Wine Enthusiast Cellar Selection Just classic Georges, balanced, elegant and refined, hiding its power under a blanket of controlled finesse. There's great depth of flavor, with oodles of blackberry, cherry and raspberry, mocha, Chinese plum sauce, soy and spicy oak, wrapped in firm, dry tannins. Just wonderful now, but with the certainty of a long life ahead. Drink—2020. (12/2006) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1906 2005 Paul Hobbs Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

92 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Napa offers beautiful black currant fruit interwoven with notions of licorice, cedar, and tobacco leaf. Full-bodied, opulent, and fleshy, it should drink nicely for 12-15+ years. (12/2007)90 points Connoisseurs Guide Directed by its ripe, energetic smells of distinct black cherry fruit and complemented comfortably by background notes of toasty oak, this wine takes no back seat to any of its cellarmates, and, indeed, for some tasters will be the first choice for the value on offer here. It is supple and balanced on the palate with tannin at the finish and a touch of heat, but it is its impressive fruit that is the key to its success and the guarantor of further growth that is to come with cellaring. (8/2008) Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. Wine will not be released to students. Value: $70

1907 2002 Neal Family Fifteen Forty Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Wine Spectator A big, ripe, expressive style that delivers a wide range of spicy currant, blackberry and cedary mocha-laced oak, finishing with a dry edge to the tannins. (Web Only- 2005) K&L NotesFrom the winery: "April 29, 2005 - Just a few miles north of the winery is my Fifteen Forty Vineyard on the east-facing flank of Howell Mountain. The vineyard is beautifully terraced at an elevation of 1365 feet, just below the Howell Mountain appellation. Howell Mountain flavors and quality similar to those found in our Estate bottling with a very firm structure but approachable tannins for this hillside location. Mature aromas of integrated oak, fruit and spice come from an intensely dark colored Cabernet. This wine is full of rich, ripe fruit flavors, age-worthy yet elegant mountain tannins and a long fruit forward finish. This vineyard was converted to organic management in 2005." Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. Wine will not be released to students. Value: $65

1908 3 Bottle Vertical of Lamborn Family Vineyards Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon

Enjoy the 2008, 2010 and 2013 vintages of the Lamborn Family Vineyards Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon. The Lamborn family partnered with famed winemaker Heidi Barrett (La Sirena, Amuse Bouche, Screaming Eagle, Dalla Valle among others, past and present) to create cabernet sauvignon grown at Lamborn Family Vineyards, high on Napa's Howell Mountain. 2008 - 94 points Wine Enthusiast Tannic and closed now, this wine has a tough-as-nails astringency that brings to mind an older style of Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon, one that required many years of aging. However, this wine is considerably riper and fruitier than anything the mountain used to yield, testimony to modern growing and extractive measures. It is, in a word, delicious, with deep, long blackberry, black currant, crème de cassis and smoke flavors. But, like the 2007, it needs serious time in the cellar. Try after 2018. (12/31/2012) 2008 Tasting Notes: "The 2008 Vintage produced less crop than normal resulting in a deep garnet colored wine with great concentration. Aromas are deep and pure with layers of ripe berry jam, black cherry, and a dollop of sweet caramel French oak. This is a powerhouse wine made with finesse. Flavors burst in the mouth matching the aroma components. Lots of mid-palate texture and density, with good length. This is a wine that will cellar well for at least 20 years. It is also a wine that can be enjoyed now and will continue to improve as it blooms in your glass." - Heidi Barrett, Winemaker 2010 - 95 points Wine Enthusiast This wine is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon and was aged in French oak. It's full bodied, with blackberry jam, black currant, dark chocolate and toasty oak flavors. The tannin-acid balance is as fine as Napa gets. Delicious now, but give it at least six years to achieve even more complexity. (12/31/2013) 2013 - 93+ points Robert Parker Wine Advocate The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Estate is the denser of the two wines, but also more structured and tannic. It has notes of pen ink, blackberry, licorice, camphor, and a touch of subtle oak in the background. The wine is full-bodied and ripe with moderate tannin. It is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon made by Heidi Barrett. I suspect it will last for a good 20-25 years. (RP) (12/30/2016) 2013 Tasting Notes: "A beautiful expression of what a mountain top vineyard can produce in a textbook growing season, this estate Cabernet displays concentrated aromas of classic blueberry and currant. Napa Valley occasionally produces vintages that are more tannic than others, such as this one. Though soft, there are plenty of tannins sure to please all Cab lovers. Multilayered rich blue fruit is enhanced by toasted French oak, leaving a long, luxurious finish. This is a Cabernet for the ages." - Heidi Barrett, winemaker. *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. 1909 Two Bottles 2014 Kosta Browne Pinot Noir Gaps Crown Vineyard
Sonoma Coast

94+ points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Coming from steep, rocky soils on the Sonoma Coast, the 2014 Pinot Noir Gap's Crown Vineyard was brought up in 25% new French oak, 16% concrete and the rest in old barrels. All of the Pinot Noirs here go into barrel dry and see malolactic fermentation in barrel. This fabulous beauty gives up notes of black cherries, spring flowers, violets and spice in a medium-bodied, ultra-pure, seamless and elegant package that will benefit from short term cellaring and then cruise for a decade on its impeccable balance. 1910 Magnum 2011 William Selyem Unoaked Chardonnay Russian River
Valley

90 points Wine Enthusiast Tasted in early spring, this Chard was still tingly with acidity, but by the time you read this, everything should have calmed down. It's terrifically ripe with green apple, nectarine and tropical fruit flavors that are so rich, you won't even miss the oak. (7/1/2013) Winemaker's Notes 100% stainless steel fermented wine, shows off the pure essence of Russian River Valley Chardonnay. The aromas of ripe Pick Lady apples, Anjou pears, Sun Crest peaches, and fresh honeysuckle dominate the aromas of this blend. Bold flavors of ripe apples, nectarines, mineral and fresh pineapple fill your mouth. Refreshing acidity (no malo-lactic) gives this wine the ability to pair with almost and food. Most of this fruit was sourced from older chardonnay vineyards along Westside Road. *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1911 Magnum 2012 William Selyem Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast Hirsch
Vineyard

95 points Wine Enthusiast This vineyard-designated wine reflects its sense of place remarkably well, offering tight dark cherry and blueberry around a strong character of wild earth, tea and herb. High in acidity and minerality, and yet powerfully understated, it's gorgeously drinkable now but will gain further complexity through 2022. (4/1/2015) Winemaker's Notes Wild herbs and dark berries permeate the nose of the 2012 Hirsch Vineyard Pinot Noir. Chinese five-spice and black tea complete the exotic aromatic profile. Powerful on the palate with intense berry and herb flavors, this wine remains lithe as it is tempered by a freshness of orange and citrus peel. Minerals on the finish give the palate a dramatic punctuation.

1912 Three Bottle Vertical of Leoville-Barton

Enjoy comparing and contrasting three vintages of Leoville-Barton from three of the very best recent vintages for French wines: 2000, 2003, 2005. 2000 - 95+ points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate I found this to be one of the more backward wines of the 2000 vintage and gave it a window of maturity of 2015-2040 when I reviewed it in 2003. In my two recent tastings of it, I changed that window to 2018-2050, which probably says more than the following tasting note could say. This is a behemoth – dense, highly extracted, very tannic, broodingly backward, with a dense purple color and very little evolution since it was bottled 8 years ago. Wonderfully sweet cedar and fruitcake notes are intermixed with hints of creme de cassis, licorice, and earthy forest floor. It is full-bodied and tannic, with everything in place, but like so many wines that come from Leoville Barton, it makes a mockery of many modern-day consumers wanting a wine for immediate gratification. Those who bought it should continue to exercise patience and be proud to own a wonderful classic with five decades of longevity ahead of it. (RP) (6/28/2010) 2003 - 96 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate A spectacular success, the opaque plum-colored 2003 Leoville Barton is still on the young side of its plateau of maturity. It exhibits a striking bouquet of forest floor and black currants as well as a full-bodied, exuberant, youthful style, an opaque plum/ruby color, a lot of complexity, and striking depth and richness. This is a profound, stunning effort from Anthony Barton and his team. Bravo! It should continue to provide immense pleasure for 20-30 years. (RP) (8/2014) 2005 - 92 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Léoville Barton's 2005 has an inky ruby/purple color and shows fairly high tannin levels, but the balance is slightly better than the Langoa Barton, which is very hard. This is probably a 30-year wine and needs at least another 20 years of cellaring, and while the tannins are high, they are balanced more thoroughly and competently. With deep cassis and red currant fruit, the wine is earthy, spicy, medium to full-bodied, and needs at least another decade. Drink it between 2025 and 2050. 1913 Two Bottles of Realm Cellars Beckstoffer To Kalon Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon

Enjoy wine from 2004 and 2005, two years regarded as among the best recent vintages for California Cabernets. 2004 - 94 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate A noble, first-growth quality effort is the 2004 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer To-Kalon Vineyard (192 cases). Aged in 100% new Taransaud oak, it boasts complex aromas of licorice, toast, creme de cassis, graphite, flowers, and spice. Full-bodied with wonderful opulence, and enough structure, acidity, and tannin to buttress the wealth of fruit and glycerin, this beautiful Cabernet can be enjoyed over the next 15+ years. (RP) (12/25/2006) 2005 - 95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate From a renowned vineyard site, the 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Beckstoffer To-Kalon boasts a deep ruby/purple color in addition to a fragrant bouquet of sweet blackberries, cherries, roasted herbs, espresso, cedar, and chocolate. Full in the mouth, with impressive stuffing, a multi-dimensional mouthfeel, an inkiness to the fruit, fabulously sweet tannin, and a 50-second finish, this stunning Cabernet should drink nicely for two decades or more. 1914 1997 Peter Michael Les Pavots Knights Valley Bordeaux Blend

Are you celebrating a 20th anniversary this year? If so, this bottle of 1997 Bordeaux is perfect to pair with a romantic dinner. Or, if you have a child born in 1997, this wine might be a nice 21st birthday gift in the near future. 96 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 1997 Les Pavots originates from a hillside vineyard overlooking the Knight's Valley that has 23 acres planted with Bordeaux varietals... Fortunately, there are 4,351 cases of 750 ml bottles. A blue/black/purple color is followed by an extraordinary bouquet of toast, blackberries, creme de cassis, licorice, and cedar. Full-bodied, with silky tannin, low acidity, and layers of concentrated, pure black fruits judiciously wrapped in subtle toasty oak, this wine can be drunk early, but promises to hit its peak in 5-7 years, and last for two or more decades. 1915 2004 Dom Perignon Limited Edition Iris Van Herpen Collectors Box

Winemaker's Notes The Dom Perignon limited edition collaboration with Dutch fashion designer Iris van Herpen centers on metamorphosis: signifying the closure of one period and the birth of another, and a powerful symbol of evolution, transformation and renaissance. Throughout its history, Dom Perignon has been intricately linked to the concept of metamorphosis. The spiritual legacy of Dom Pérignon constantly reinvents itself throughout the ages, selectively choosing when to emerge in the form of a new vintage. On the nose, aromas of almond and powdered cocoa develop gradually into white fruit with hints of dried flowers. Classic toasted notes give a rounded finish and denote a fully realized maturity. On the palate, the wine instantly traces an astoundingly fine line between density and weightlessness. Its precision is extreme, tactile, dark and chiselled. The full taste lingers with the utmost elegance on a sappy, spicy note. Rated 96 Wine Spectator & 98 James Suckling 95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Lily-of-the-valley perfume and scents of lightly toasted brioche and almond rise from the glass of Moët's 2004 Brut Dom Perignon, along with hints of the apricot, pear and grapefruit that then inform a luscious and creamy yet strikingly delicate as well as consummately refreshing palate. Sweet-saline savor of scallop – also already intimated in the nose – lends compulsive saliva-inducement to a ravishingly rarified and persistent finish, joined by alkaline, nutty, liquid-floral, and nori seaweed notes for a performance of head-scratching subtlety and intrigue. 1916 2000 Chateau Malescot St. Exupery Margaux, Magnum

95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate This estate, which has continued to impress me in recent years, hit a home run in 2000. Showing slightly better than I rated it previously, this wine is deep bluish/purple with some lightening at the edge, and its floral nose displays notes of melted licorice, crushed rock, blueberries and black raspberries. A wine of extraordinary balance, equilibrium, and purity, with supple tannins, this medium to full-bodied, concentrated effort is already compelling and has hit its window of full maturity, where it should stay for another 15-20 years. 1917 1997 Silver Oak Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

Are you celebrating a 20th anniversary this year? If so, this bottle of 1997 Cabernet Sauvignon is perfect to pair with a romantic dinner. Or, if you have a child born in 1997, this wine might be a nice 21st birthday gift in the near future. 94 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 1997 Cabernet Sauvignon Napa looks to be one of the finest wines made by the winemaking team of proprietor Justin Meyer and winemaker/viticulturist Daniel Baron. The 1997 Napa is an impressive effort. A blend of 93% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest 5% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot, this wine has a flamboyant nose of fruitcake, licorice, Asian spice, black currants, and toasty wood. Deep, opulent, viscous, intense, chewy, and thick, it is a classic Napa Cabernet Sauvignon made in an all-American oak lovers' style. (RP) (12/2000) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1918 2011 Harlan The Maiden Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend

91 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The Maiden is fashioned from barrels not deemed rich or complex enough for the Harlan Estate (a true first-growth wine). The supple, delicious, fruit-forward 2011 The Maiden exhibits lots of sweet black cherries intermixed with hints of caramel and vanillin, an attractive, medium to full-bodied texture and good opulence as well as softness. It is on a fast evolutionary track, so enjoy it now and over the next 10+ years. (RP) (10/2014) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1919 2009 Seven Stones Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2009 Cabernet Sauvignon is a huge wine bursting with dark fruit, licorice, scorched earth, tar and grilled herbs. This is an especially big, hulking 2009 that is likely to require a measure of patience. Massive tannins frame the fruit through to the virile finish. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2029. (AG) (12/2011)95 points Wine Spectator This striking Cabernet weaves together an impressive array of black licorice, gravel, dried berry, currant, cedar and wild flowers. Dense, concentrated, tight yet persistent, with a long, focused finish that keeps the flavors on point. Best from 2013 through 2024. (5/2012) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1920 Billecart-Salmon Brut Reserve Champagne Jeroboam (3L)

92 points James Suckling This has impressive ripe stone fruits on the nose with peaches, mangoes, melon and cherries. Really upbeat and attractive purity. The palate follows the same thread of fruit characters with a clever balance of flesh and crunch, a bright finish and good balance. Drink now. A blend of roughly equal thirds of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier. (10/2016)91 points Wine & Spirits Its remarkable fruitiness might be tied to the firm's long, slow, cool fermentations, which, they believe, allow meunier to maintain its perfume. This is a graceful, vinous Champagne with dramatic high notes of roses and red fruit, finishing clean with a grounding of pale earthiness. It's a lovely prediction of what Champagne might become in a warming climate. (12/2013)91 points Wine Spectator This bright Champagne is sleek and mouthwatering, with tightly knit flavors of glazed apricot, biscuit, nectarine and verbena. Clean-cut and lacy on the finish. Drink now through 2018. (AN) (11/2016)90 points Wine Enthusiast Editors' Choice In the crisp, balanced style of the producer, this nonvintage Champagne is light, poised and elegant. It is satisfyingly mature with good acidity and minerality. Lively and perfumed, it is ready to drink. (RV) (12/2016) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1921 2002 Marcassin Blue-Slide Ridge Vineyard Pinot Noir

96 points Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar Good bright red-ruby. Deep aromas of dark raspberry, smoke, truffle and porcini mushroom. Then highly concentrated, sweet and high-pitched, with a bright, sappy quality that comes as a surprise after the lower-toned aromas. Wonderfully dense, lush wine with intriguing saline and earthy nuances. Perhaps best today on the lush, fine-grained aftertaste, which features outstanding sappy length.

This vineyard, developed jointly by Turley, Wetlaufer and the Martinelli family (Turley also makes a Blue Slide Pinot under the Martinelli label), is increasingly looking like one of California's handful of grand cru sites for Pinot Noir. (ST) (5/2005)95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2002 Pinot Noir Blue Slide Ridge, which I questioned last year because I thought it was picking up some volatile acidity, tasted superb. It offers black raspberry, blueberry, violet, and subtle damp forest floor notes, beautiful acidity that buttresses its superb richness, intensity, and ripeness, medium to full body, and a stunning finish. This Pinot has done a complete turnabout in bottle and is showing fabulously well, at the same time making me feel like a knucklehead for my comments last year. (RP) (12/2005)

1922 Trio of Cult California 2009 Pinot Noirs

2009 Aubert "UV-SL Vineyard" Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir96 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2009 Pinot Noir UV-SL Vineyard is dazzling. It reveals all of the qualities that make Pinot here so compelling. In the 2009 I find expressive aromatics that meld seamlessly into the fruit, not to mention a gracious yet powerful personality. A super-refined finish has the last say in this moving, breathtaking wine. The UV-SL vineyard is just four miles from the Pacific Ocean. There is an energy and vitality in the wine I find totally irresistible.

Anticipated maturity: 2014-2020. (AG) (2/2012)2009 Peter Michael "Ma Danseuse" Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir 95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate From a north-facing parcel, the young 2009 Pinot Noir Ma Danseuse is less evolved than either the 2010 or 2011, but that has more to do with the vintage style than anything else. It displays abundant fruit, sassafras, raspberry, black currant and meaty aromas intermixed with a notion of bouquet garni. Dense, medium to full-bodied, youthful and vibrant, it will benefit from another 1-2 years of bottle age, and keep for a decade. (RP) (12/2013)2009 Kistler Silver Belt Vineyard

Cuvee Natalie95 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2009 Pinot Noir Silver Belt Cuvee Natalie is a deep, dense wine imbued with black cherries, spices, violets, mint and crushed rocks. It possesses stunning depth and richness, all supported by a persistent vein of minerality that gives the wine its focus and energy. The Cuvee Natalie is pure, powerful and simply a beauty to behold in the glass. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2021. (AG) (2/2012)

1923 Three Bottle Vertical of Pisoni Vineyards Santa Lucia Highlands Pinot Noir

Enjoy comparing the 2009, 2010 and 2011 Pisoni Vineyards Pinot Noir vintages.

2009 - 91 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2009 Pinot Noir Pisoni is a big wine with powerful tannins that frame a core of dark, black fruit. Today it is the structural elements that dominate the wine's balance, but this could merit a higher score if the fruit begins to emerge. My sense is that the new oak (65%) may be a bit on the high side. The Pisoni was made from four separate blocks and vinified with 20% whole clusters.

Anticipated maturity: 2012-2019. ...Today the Santa Lucia Highlands is a hotbed of activity that attracts the country's most talented winemakers...grapes from the Pisoni vineyard are among the most highly sought in California... (AG) (8/2011)

2010 - 92 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2010 Pinot Noir Pisoni comes across as more structured than most of the wines made by the Pisoni family in this vintage. Firm yet well-integrated tannins form the backdrop for an expressive tapestry of bright red fruit, flowers, licorice and spices that gradually unfold in the glass. The use of 20% whole clusters brings out an aromatic register that is quite appealing. A poised, beautifully articulated finish rounds things out in style. This is a great showing from the Pisoni family, one of the early pioneers of the Santa Lucia Highland and one of its most eloquent exponents today. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2020. (AG) (8/2012)

2011 - 96 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate A ripe, voluptuous effort that dishes out thrilling levels of fruit, the 2011 Pinot Noir Estate possesses layers of kirsch, black currants, black raspberry, licorice, sweet spice and crushed flower-like aromas and flavors that flow seamlessly to a full-bodied, rich and concentrated palate. Sweetly fruited and rich, it has sweet underlying tannin, incredible purity of fruit and clean, integrated acidity. Opening up in the glass and over the evening, it is a brilliant Pinot Noir that's up there with the best of the vintage. It should evolve gracefully and have upwards of a decade of longevity, although I see no reason to delay gratification either. Drink now-2021. This benchmark estate in the Santa Lucia Highlands is run by the Pisoni family, with Mark Pisoni managing the vineyards and Jeff Pisoni making the wines. While they only release a single estate Pinot Noir under the Pisoni label (always 100% from the Pisoni Vineyard), they also release a number of highly recommended Pinots and Syrahs (from different vineyards) under their Lucia line. 1924 2014 Francis Ford Coppola Black Label Claret, Double Magnum

Winemaker's Notes: Our prize offering, the ultra premium Claret, sports a label that honors the first Cabernet Sauvignon blended in a Bordeaux style by Gustave Niebaum in 1910. Claret is a term originally coined by the British to describe Cabernet-based wines. This Cabernet Sauvignon, Petit Verdot, Malbec and Cabernet Franc blend is alluring and sophisticated; it is memorably lush with a tapestry of smooth tannins and succulent flavors of wild berries, plum and anise. Borrowing tradition of European wineries, we add gold netting to bottle to signify outstanding quality of wine. Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. Wine will not be released to students. Value: $75

1925 2013 Opus One Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend

100 points James Suckling The greatest Opus ever. Terrific aromas of crushed black currants, blueberries and flowers with hints of sweet tobacco. Roses continue to exude opulence and class. Full body, superb balance of ultra-fine tannins and vibrant acidity. Complex aftertaste of black fruits and citrus fruit. Extremely persistent. So approachable now and enjoyable. But will be even better in 2019 and beyond... This will always be beautiful to drink. (1/2016) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1926 Two Bottles of the 2002 Peter Michael Les Pavots Knights Valley Bordeaux Blend

99 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate A great, great success...the 2002 Les Pavots, which I loved from barrel as well as bottle, still has a good 20+ years of life ahead of it. At this point, it is tasting like a vigorous young adolescent in its evolutionary development... Inky black/purple, with a nose of incense, licorice, balsamic and Asian soy notes interwoven with blackberry, blueberry and hints of truffle and camphor, this wine is full-bodied, opulent and voluptuously textured, with sensational mid-palate, depth and richness. This is a killer Bordeaux-styled, ripe, exuberant, flamboyant red from Peter Michael that stands as one of the all-time great Les Pavots cuvees ever made. It ideally needs another 3-4 years of cellaring, although it is quite accessible and should keep for a minimum of 20 or more years. Bravo! 1927 Two Bottles of the 2014 Kosta Browne Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir

93 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The last of the appellation releases, the 2014 Pinot Noir Sonoma Coast was brought up in 55% new French oak, which is slightly more than the 2013. Deep, rich and earthy, with notes of bouquet garni, smoked earth, licorice and dark fruits, it has full-bodied richness, a big mid-palate and is packed with gorgeous amounts of fruit. It's a big, rich wine from this cool climate appellation, yet I suspect it will show more classic Sonoma Coast characteristics with a year or two in bottle. It's a beautiful wine. This was another rock star lineup from Kosta Browne and it's certainly one of the most impressive lineups I tasted all year. And while I generally consider 2013 to be a better vintage than 2014, these 2014s are a step up over last year's releases, which were no slouches either. The estate continues to use moderate amounts of whole clusters for their reds, and aging occurs in varying amounts of French oak (and recently, some concrete). While these are big, rich wines, they're in no way over the top and the vast majority have classic, structured and age-worthy profiles. Other producers at this level are few and far between. 1928 Krug Grand Cuvée Brut Champagne

Krug Grand Cuvée Brut, ID 413068 Winemaker's Notes: Krug Grande Cuvée is the archetype of Krug's philosophy of craftsmanship and savoir faire: a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years. Its exceptional finesse is the result of a stay of at least another six years in the cellars. Over twenty years are needed to craft each bottle of Krug Grande Cuvée: the first prestige cuvée re-created each year, beyond the very notion of vintage. This bottle left the Krug cellars to receive its cork in autumn 2013. This is the last step after more than six years of ageing in the cellars to acquire finesse and elegance. This bottle is an extraordinary blend of 142 wines from 11 different years, the oldest from 1990 and the youngest from 2006. Every glass of this bottle of Krug Grande Cuvée is the fruit of more than 22 years of craft and patience. Reserve wines lend structure and depth to this season's harvest which seemed to be somewhat too homogeneous. It is this year's wines of many plots from the villages of Mesnil-sur-Oger, Avize and Villers Marmery which provide the shine and minerality to the blend. The final composition of this Krug Grande Cuvée is: 44% Pinot Noir, 35% Chardonnay and 21% Meunier. Blending many years gives Krug Grande Cuvée its unique fullness of flavours and aromas, incredible generosity and an absolute elegance that are impossible to express with the wines of just a single year. Krug Grande Cuvée is re-created each year beyond the notion of vintage. Every year, we recreate from scratch the multitude of facets that do not compete on the palate, but instead form a perfect harmony, the main characteristic of Krug Grande Cuvée. Its myriad aromas make Krug Grande Cuvée the richest of them all. Its generosity means that everyone can find something in it that stirs the emotions.

1929 Krug Rose Brut Champagne

Krug Rose Brut, ID 312031 Krug Rosé is everywhere we don't expect it to be, in terms of texture, colour and taste. It is a remarkable champagne which encapsulates the same creative spirit of Krug Grande Cuvée, again surpassing the very notion of vintage. This bottle left the Krug cellars to receive its cork in summer 2012. This is the last step after over five years of ageing in the cellars gaining finesse and elegance. Krug Rosé is the only prestige cuvee Rosé blended from a rich palette of wines from three grape varieties and several different years, the youngest being from 2006, combined with a very expressive skin-fermented Pinot Noir wine, which provides unparalleled colour and spiciness. It is an unprecedented Champagne, endowed with the same creative spirit that goes into Krug Grande Cuvée, beyond the very notion of vintage. Due to its very subtle bubbles, long ending and impressive elegance, Krug Rose is unrivalled among Rosé Champagnes. Krug Rosé is the first in a completely reinvented Rosé Universe. Krug Rosé was created in a bid to move away from excesses in colour, taste and aroma. The result is a Rosé defined by its elegance, distinction and finesse. Krug Rosé is decidedly the most non-conformist of Krug Champagnes in terms of its texture, colour and taste. It is everywhere we don't expect it to be. Surprising and extraordinary, Krug Rosé is a controversy that is positively...delicious. -- Eric Lebel, Chef de Caves, Maison Krug. *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1930 2000 Gloria Ferrer Carneros Cuvee

89 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate The 2000 Carneros Cuvee is subtle and gracious from start to finish. Hints of pear, apricot, pastry and apples emerge from the beautifully delineated bouquet. The Carneros Cuvee impresses for its silky, understated fruit and terrific overall balance. A long, polished finish rounds things out in style. This is a beautiful wine from Gloria Ferrer. The Carneros Cuvee is 55% Pinot Noir and 45% Chardonnay. Disgorged on 3/17/2011. Anticipated maturity: 2012-2015. (AG) (12/22/2011) *Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. 1933 Two Bottles of 2001 Silver Oak Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon

91 points Wine Spectator Aging very nicely, this is smooth, supple and complex, in great drinking space. Ripe currant, wild berry, mocha, dill, cedar and tobacco are full-bodied, gaining on the finish. 2001 California Cabernet blind retrospective. (Web-2011) 90 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate Fully mature and made in the Silver Oak style of lavishly oaked, spicy, earthy, smoky wines, the dense ruby/purple-colored, full-bodied 2001 exhibits a sweet, juicy, seductive, All-American, bombastic style. Although not for everybody, it will continue to drink well for another decade. (RP) (6/2011) Restrictions: Purchaser must be age 21 or over. Bottle must be collected in the Menlo Development Office on April 4 or 5, 2017. Wine will not be released to students. Value: $240
